

Bury St Edmunds 9th Annual Christmas Fayre

23 24 & 25 November 2012

The Bury St Edmunds Annual Christmas Fayre has grown and grown and in 2011 we estimate that over 100,000 visitors attended. With extra stalls all around the town and more entertainment than ever before there are many reasons to visit Bury St Edmunds. New for 2012 we are extending our weekly Saturday provisions market to include the Friday.

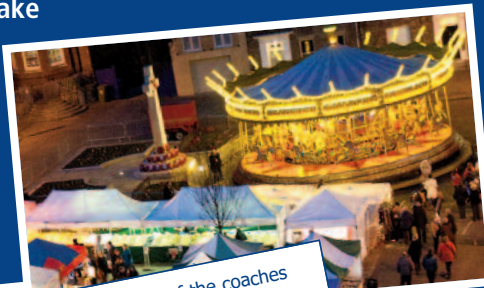

As in previous years our main coach drop off point will be Honey Hill (St Mary's Church) but we will need to limit the amount of coaches particularly on Saturday. There will be an overflow drop off point but this will not be as close to the main Fayre so book early to guarantee your place and avoid disappointment.

As in previous years the coach parking is FREE, the organiser/coach driver will receive a £5 meal voucher redeemable at several town centre restaurants. A FREE shuttle minibus will be available to take drivers to and from the town. This offer applies to booked coaches - so book today!

"I enjoyed all the Xmas fayre and had a very nice lunch in the Cathedral restaurant. I was impressed in the way all the coaches were organised and everyone got on the right coach with ease to get home. I hope to come back in the summer to have a good look round."

Mrs Higgins - Stevenage

"Thanks for the great organisation at this year's Christmas Fayre. Our group had a wonderful time. Signage was good, stewards were helpful and best of all loads of ladies' loots!!"

Anna Nieman - Hereward Hall Social Club

"Very enjoyable. The organisation of the coaches was 1st class. They have to be congratulated on the speed and efficiency."

Mr Bradshaw, Downham Market

"Well done organisers!! Very well organised fayre, an extremely varied selection of stalls all well presented. The best coach dispersal system I have experienced in any Christmas event I have visited."

Mrs Williams - Hitchin

I would like to place a booking for the 2012 Christmas Fayre.
