

Privacy

What information do you collect about me?

When expressing interest to become a trader at The Bury St Edmunds Christmas Fayre we will ask for your contact details so we can keep you updated in regards to the details of the fayre – this is a legitimate interest.

How do you handle the information you collect?

All expressions of interest will be processed in accordance with the councils' data protection, information security and records retention policies and will only be used by us for the process of informing you about opportunities in regards to the fayre.

For more detail and our privacy statement in full please click on 'How we use your information' below